

October 9, 1939.

Mr. Rufus Jackson,
508 Dixon St.,
Homestead, Pa.

Dear Sonnyman:

Abe asked me to write you some time ago, and ask you if you were coming East anytime soon. He and Pompey would like to talk with you. If you were not coming on business of your own, they will all put in and pay the carfare. There are so many things Abe feels should be planned in advance.

About the play-off, our first game Sept. 6th in Newark we went in the red for $25.55. Sept. 9th in Phila we got $45.10, Sept. 10th in Baltimore $197.24. I guess we forgot about the 5% because the amount was so small, however, my share amounts to $5.41, which I will gladly pay you.

Gottlieb sent a check for the Leagues percentage of booking fees from The Eagles. Grays and Elites. The amount of fees paid and his figures were wrong in each case. He credited The Eagles with $293.96, it should have been $355.16, a difference of $61.20. The Grays he credited with $459.45, and Posey's statement said The Grays paid $581.44, a difference of $121.99. I am writing him today, I am sure he will adjust the difference. No money was sent from The Stars, as Gottlieb said they do not have to pay fees. I do not think this is fair, but if the other Members are satisfied, I guess there is nothing I can do alone.

About The Cubans and Yankees, Gottlieb said Leuschner would send that in. I wrote Leuschner and received an answer from him that Miss Strong was away, and as soon as she returned he would take care of the matter. I will send another statement as soon as matters are adjusted.

If you can come East let Abe know.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ